C. L. Knapp's names in Vermont.

Brother Phelps,

165 Your letter, requesting the names of leading abolitionists, &c. was duly received. I embrace the earliest convenient opportunity to comply, so far as I am able, with your request, premising, however, that Vermont abolitionists, thus far, have kept themselves almost wholly aloof from the unhappy contest in Massachusetts. The persons, whose names are annexed, may, I think be confidently relied on to favor any plans for the advancement of the common cause, so far as they think them adapted to that end:—

Brattleboro', David Wood; Jamaica, Jno. Goodale Esq; Chester, Jesse Stedman; Springfield N. Safford; Rockingham, Bela Hall; Barnard, Rev. T. Gordon; Quechee Village, Geo. Udall; Strafford, Rev. S. Benton; Chelsea, Dr. S. Humphrey; Newbury, Hon A. B. W. Tenny; Randolph, Col. Chas. Carpenter; Brookfield, Danl. Kingsbury Esq; Northfield, Nath. Jones; Berlin, Dr. Orrin Smith; Calais, Eld. B. Page; Hardwick, Rev. K. Bayley; Walden, Parley Foster; Peacham, Hazen Merrill Esq; Barnet, L. P. Parks, Esq.; Lyndon, Capt. Jesse Burbank P.O.; Danville, R. C. Benton Esq. Passumpsic; Marshfield, Hon. Wm. Martin; Warren, Col. A. Cushman; Windsor, Hon Milton Brown; Ryegate, Rev. James Milligan; Craftsbury, Col. A. Stimson; Derby, Dr. L. Richmond; Irasburgh, Moody B. Kimball; Burlington, N. Lovely; Hinesburgh, John Allen; Middlebury Dr. Allen; Shoreham, Rev. J. F. Goodhue; Manchester, E. Roberts; Brandon, John Conant Esq; Rutland, R. R. Thrall; Habbardton, Rev.
